

Passing Down the Family Farm or Ranch

Succession Planning Workshop for Farm and Ranch Families

Is your family is thinking of transferring working lands and businesses to the next generation?
Get started with this practical workshop –
it is never too early!

Friday, November 22nd

8:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

(Registration & Coffee 8:30 – 9:00)

Anderson Valley Grange • 9800 Hwy 128, Philo

- Who will run your farm or ranch in 5, 10, or 20 years?
- How can you ensure their success, while protecting your interests?
- What's the best way to keep harmony in the family through this difficult process?

Experts from Mendocino County and around the state will provide key information and tools to help you address these questions and help plan for your land's continued production in the future. Topics include:

- Successful business transfers;
- Family communications; and
- Estate and tax planning.

Workshop Presenters from:

*California FarmLink;
Northern California Farm Credit
Business Consulting;
Family Lands Consulting;
Magruder Ranch, Potter Valley;
Mannon, King & Johnson; and California Rangeland Trust.*

Workshop participants will be eligible for a low-cost, private consultation with an attorney and/or CPA at a future date.

All generations are encouraged to attend. Lunch, workshop materials and one copy of California FarmLink's Farm Succession Guidebook per family are included. Workshop cost: $25 each for the first two family members and $15 for each additional member.

Pre-registration is required by November 18th
